

1. What is Computer?

A1. Computer is a electronic device which is used to do arithmetic calculations and store, process information.

2. What is RAM?

A2. RAM or Random Access Memory is a type of volatile memory which is a high speed memory and is used to store files on which actions are being performed.

3. Where is data stored in a computer?

A3. Data is stored in computer in the form of files in different types of storage devices like RAM, ROM.

4. What is that input device used to type text and numbers on a document in the computer system?

A4. Keyboard

5. What are output devices?

A5. Output Devices are devices which are used to display or print the results of the information entered through input devices. Example :- Display, Printer, etc.

6. Which is the input device that allows a user to move the cursor or pointer on the screen?

A6. Mouse.

7. Which language is directly understood by the computer without a translation program?

A7. Binary Codes.

8. What are input devices?

A8. Input devices are devices which are used to give information to the computer devices. Example:- Keyboard, Mouse, etc.